

Unit 22 Session 1

Luke 17

Story point: Jesus healed ten men, and one was saved

Remarks about lesson:

In the beginning, God created everything, and everything was perfect. Part of God's perfect creation was a man, Adam, and a woman, Eve. Sadly, they chose to disobey God, and ever since then the world has been broken by sin. Thankfully, God had a wonderful plan to fix sin. God sent Jesus.

When Jesus was grown, He began His ministry. He traveled around healing, doing miracles, and teaching people about God. For the next few weeks, we will look closely at the wonderful ways Jesus healed people.

Discussion Questions:

1. How many men did Jesus heal with leprosy? (Luke 17:17)
2. How many returned to praise Jesus and thank Him? (Luke 17:15-16)
3. Why did Jesus say the one Samaritan was saved? (Luke 17:19)
4. Do you feel more like the man who thanked Jesus, or the nine who didn't?
5. How do you show God you are thankful to Him?
6. When might it be difficult to show God you love Him and are thankful?

Jesus' resurrection gives us hope for eternal life. Eternal life isn't just for some point in the future but begins right away as our lives change to glorify God.

Personal reflection questions:

- What does this story teach me about God or about the gospel?
- What does this story teach me about myself?
- Whom can I tell about this story?
